DRINKS

Drinks are what we do best at Kittyhawk. While our focus is on rum and rye, we do stock all other major spirits and our cocktails run the gamut from originals, proven, experimental and new and pretty much any classic you can think of. We also have a large variety of wines as well as both draught and bottled beer, cider and, of course, an extensive champagne list. It wouldn't be Liberation Day without champagne!

When it comes to deciding what your guests should drink, you may choose to go with one of our drinks packages or just pay on consumption, with or without limitations on what your guests can order.

It's totally up to you!

FOOD

Our restaurant menu is contemporary French and has been put together by our Executive Chef, Liam Driscoll who also created the menu for our sister venue, Big Poppa's, and Adam Lord, our Head Chef who joined us from The Roosevelt.

For larger groups looking for private dining in The Officers' Mess, we can offer a selection of banquet and alternate drop menus. We also have a selection of canapes and canapes packages that are well suited to cocktail functions. Frequently Asked Questions

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A PRIVATE AND SEMI-PRIVATE EVENT SPACE?

The Officers' Mess is an example of a private event space, because it's totally separate from the rest of our patrons. You have your own access, your own bathrooms, your staff members and you can have your own entertainment. The Conservatory is a semi-private area because, while it can be sectioned off, it is still a part of Kittyhawk main bar so you wouldn't be able to have your own music or any kind of AV gear.

The Lounge is a non-exclusive space that is also within main bar and depending on the size of your group and the night of the week, you will most likely share it with other patrons.

CAN YOU BRING DECORATIONS / LIGHTING / AV EQUIPMENT?

Decorations, lighting and AV are not possible within the Conservatory or Lounge, unless you've booked the whole of Kittyhawk exclusively. Small table decorations may be possible if cleared with your event manager prior to the event.

Decorations and AV equipment are allowed in The Officers' Mess. Nothing may be stuck to the walls and all decorations must be removed by you when you leave the venue. Any AV equipment used in the space must adhere to any noise guidelines advised by management on the night. You may use our AV (additional charges may apply) or bring your own (please discuss with us so we can ensure compatibility).

In any space, lighting is only possible if not visible from outside the venue (this is per our building regulations).

MINORS

Minors are always permitted in The Officers' Mess, with prior consent. Minors are only permitted in Kittyhawk main bar before 4pm. This time limit also applies to the Conservatory and the Lounge, unless you have booked Kittyhawk exclusively.
