TERMS & CONDITIONS

To confirm your group booking

- Complete and return the signed booking form with your deposit payment
- One of our events specialist will confirm your booking via email and provide receipt of payment
- Food service commences 30 minutes after your arrival time

On the day of your booking

- We can only hold your reservation for 15 minutes after your nominated start time. If less than half of the group has arrived within 30 minutes we may reduce the reserved area.
- Should extenuating circumstances arise and you have not notified the venue of a feasible late arrival, refunds or discounts will not be available.
- On arrival, make yourself known to one of the staff. If required, a staff member will provide you with wristbands for your bar tab. You will then be escorted to your reserved area.
- Our staff will notify you when your bar tab is running low allowing you the option to either top the amount up or close the tab. If you are extending your tab a credit card and photo identification will be required on the night. It is the bookers responsibility to ensure you utilise your pre-paid bar tab. Should this not be finished on the day, refunds will not be available.
- All charges must be settled prior to your departure from the venue.
- A reserved area does not include priority service at the bar, private wait staff or exclusivity of any venue or bar.
- If you require a receipt, please let a staff member know at the time of closing your account.
