WATT BRISBANE

INDUSTRIAL CHIC MEETS GRITTY
GLAMOUR AT OUR RIVERSIDE VENUE

RIVERSIDE

OFFERING OPTIONS FOR BOTH SEATED AND COCKTAIL EVENTS IN A VARIETY OF CONFIGURATIONS, WATT IS LOCATED NEAR KEY LANDMARKS INCLUDING BRISBANE POWERHOUSE, BRISBANE RIVER AND NEW FARM PARK, MAKING IT AN UNPARALLELED EVENT SPACE FOR TEAM BUILDING EVENTS OR THOSE ONE OF A KIND EXPERIENCES.

ABOUT THE POWERHOUSE

In the early 1900s, Brisbane City Council cast its vision towards a tramway system. The result was the creation of the Brisbane City Council New Farm Powerhouse, designed by council Tramway Architect Roy Rusden Ogg and constructed in stages between 1928 and 1940. Built on the eastern riverside point of what is now New Farm Park, the water from the river provided cooling and the rail link supplied coal.

At its peak in the post-war years the New Farm Powerhouse supplied electricity for the largest tram network in the southern hemisphere and serviced many of Brisbane's suburbs.

When trams were replaced by buses, Brisbane City Council sold the building to the state. The Powerhouse was officially decommissioned in 1971.

The building was reacquired by Brisbane City Council in 1989 – a significant example of industrial design of the art deco period, the power station was envisioned as a space for arts and culture.

The redeveloped Brisbane Powerhouse was designed by Brisbane City Council architect Peter Roy and was opened on 10 May, 2000. Seven years later the building underwent a further stage of development to increase audience capacities, restaurant and bar facilities as well as functions and conference spaces and was re-opened on 6 June, 2007.

Well known for its creative cocktails, cool vibes and contemporary styling, WATT knows how to throw a celebration. Perfect for exclusive events from product launches and Christmas parties to corporate lunches and conferences with a view.

HISTORY

BRISBANE RIVER FLOOD HISTORY

The "WATERMARK" sculpture by Richard Tipping was created to recall the natural disasters that have affected Brisbane River. The base of the statue denotes the height of the 1974 floods and the top of the statue denotes the height of the 1893 flood.

CORPORATE OCCASIONS

Just a short drive or ferry ride from the city, while feeling a million miles away, event planners love this venue's industrial chic vibe, which lends itself to minimal styling, however, you can take it up a notch to give it that real wow factor.

Packages are available for all corporate occasions from conferences to team dinners and product launches. WATT also offers special packages throughout the year for key occasions like Melbourne Cup and Christmas parties.

WATT OFFERS MANY FLEXIBLE SPACES PERFECT FOR SMALL AND INTIMATE GATHERINGS, TO LARGE AND LAVISH OCCASIONS.
