

A vibrant interior space, likely a lounge or event area. A long white table is set with various vases of flowers (pink, white, and orange) and small decorative items. A row of bright blue, modern-style chairs is arranged along the table. Above the table, several large, reflective disco balls hang from the ceiling. In the background, a neon sign reads "Sunshine State of Mind". To the right, a large potted plant hangs from the ceiling, and a yellow sofa is partially visible. The walls are a mix of light pink and white brick, and the floor is a light, neutral color.
