Event Guide

Our Story, United Service Club Queensland

Formally established in 1892 by Major General John Fletcher Owen, the building originally served as a social club for Queensland military officers. Today the club continues to uphold its traditions with foundational members and guests of all ages and backgrounds, whilst continuing to value its heritage, traditions and defence community.

Our beautiful Heritage listed building encompass seven unique rooms, each with their own distinct period features, which you will see within this event guide.

The venue also has audio visual capabilities, an onsite car park and private accomodation on our second floor. From corporate breakfasts and seminars, to intimate luncheons or dinners right through to weddings, birthdays and Christmas parties, our Events Managers Joshua and Fiona will create a personalised package to suit your requirements.

Detailed menus and beverage guides can be shared upon request.

We look forward to warmly welcoming you to the United Service Club.
